

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS

the National Census of Domestic Violence Services

Executive Summary for

Nebraska

The complexity of the issues is very diverse -- the lives we touch on a daily basis. How does one capture the joy of a woman finding a job? How does one capture in one day the numerous systems we interact with, to advocate, to seek change? And how we do that today is different than how it will look tomorrow.”

-An urban program

On November 2nd 2006, 22 out of 22 identified local domestic violence programs (100%) in Nebraska participated in the National Census of Domestic Violence Services (NCDVS). Designed to address the safety and confidentiality needs of victims, the Census collected an unduplicated, non-invasive count of adults and children who received critical services from local domestic violence programs during the 24-hour survey period.

VICTIMS SERVED

During the 24-hour survey period 201 victims of domestic violence received housing services from a domestic violence program, either in emergency shelter or transitional housing.

600 adults and children were served in Nebraska

- 150 adults and children found refuge in emergency domestic violence shelters
- 51 adults and children were living in transitional housing programs, designed specifically for domestic violence survivors
- 399 adults and children sought non-residential advocacy and services such as individual counseling, legal advocacy, and children's support groups

“We are an agency covering 5 counties, all are very rural. We have many obstacles including affordable housing, transportation, day care, and adequate employment resources. Many women are forced to go back to the abusive relationship because of limited choices.”

LIMITED RESOURCES

Programs reported a considerable unmet demand for services due to a lack of resources, including limited staffing and overflowing shelters.

150 requests for services were tragically unmet due to a lack of resources.

- 82 unmet requests for emergency shelter
- 25 unmet requests for transitional housing
- 43 unmet requests for non-residential services

HOTLINE CALLS

Domestic violence hotlines provide critical support and information for victims in danger. 322 hotline calls were answered, more than 13 hotline calls every hour.

“Today I had a client that had a weapon pulled on her when I was talking to her on the phone so she had to hang up. When I called back, all phones had been disconnected.”
