

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS

the National Census of Domestic Violence Services

Executive Summary for

Pennsylvania

The complexity of the issues is very diverse – the lives we touch on a daily basis. How does one capture the joy of a woman finding a job? How does one capture in one day the numerous systems we interact with, to advocate, to seek change? And how we do that today is different than how it will look tomorrow.”
-An urban program

On November 2nd 2006, 61 out of 61 identified local domestic violence programs (100%) in Pennsylvania participated in the National Census of Domestic Violence Services (NCDVS). Designed to address the safety and confidentiality needs of victims, the Census collected an unduplicated, non-invasive count of adults and children who received critical services from local domestic violence programs during the 24-hour survey period.

VICTIMS SERVED

During the 24-hour survey period 1,007 victims of domestic violence received housing services from a domestic violence program, either in emergency shelter or transitional housing.

2,477 adults and children were served in Pennsylvania.

- 617 adults and children found refuge in emergency domestic violence shelters
- 390 adults and children were living in transitional housing programs, designed specifically for domestic violence survivors
- 1,470 adults and children sought non-residential advocacy and services such as individual counseling, legal advocacy, and children's support groups

"We are really struggling with capacity issues right now. We've had two months of turning people away more often than not."
-A suburban program
