

Housing and Economic Justice Coordinator Position Announcement

Organization Overview: The Georgia Coalition Against Domestic Violence (GCADV) is located in Decatur, Georgia and is a statewide nonprofit dedicated to creating social change and the elimination of domestic violence in the lives of all Georgia citizens through providing quality support, comprehensive training, and legislative advocacy for domestic violence agencies, advocates, and communities statewide. You can learn more about GCADV at www.qcadv.org.

Job Overview: The Housing and Economic Justice Coordinator provides oversight, technical assistance, direction, and leadership over GCADV's housing projects, initiatives, and statewide efforts which help victims of domestic violence access and maintain permanent housing. Additionally, this role engages with various stakeholders as a strategist in the development of trauma informed housing and economic policies, procedures, and best practices which impact survivors; both nationally and statewide.

This position requires some travel (up to 20%).

Minimum Requirements:

- Minimum of 3 years' advocacy/project management experience in a local domestic violence service program, homelessness organization, or closely allied social justice organization.
- Strong project and budget management skills with the ability to work independently in a self-directed manner as part of a team in a fast pace environment.
- Superior organization skills, ability to manage work time, excellent oral and written communication skills.
- Strong interpersonal, verbal and written communication skills.
- Advanced technology skills, including proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint and online communications.
- Commitment to the GCADV's mission, cultural competency and antiracism work

Preferred Qualifications:

- Knowledge on the intersections of domestic violence and access/sustainability of permanent housing.
- Experience in managing multiple partner relationships, multiple tasks, and meeting short deadlines.

- Knowledge of housing first approaches and HUD funded housing programs and policies.
- Knowledge of issues, resources, and approaches which impact economic justice for survivors.

Compensation: Starting salary commensurate with experience, within a range of $40,000 – $45,000 per year. GCADV offers excellent benefits including health, dental, vision, and life insurance; retirement match; and generous vacation leave and holidays.

To Apply: Email a cover letter and a resume with your qualifications to hr-gcadv@gcadv.org by August 31, 2018. We will accept applications only by e-mail. NO PHONE CALLS PLEASE. All applications will be kept strictly confidential.

GCADV is an equal opportunity employer with a commitment to diversity and encourages all qualified applicants to apply, including but not limited to people of color, people with disabilities and survivors of domestic violence.
