

Please Post or Circulate

JOB OPENING

Director of Public Relations

The Director of Public Relations plans, develops, and implements the RI Coalition Against Domestic Violence's public relations and strategic communications activities. These activities include media relations, public awareness, and special projects. The Director of Public Relations is a full time position.

Qualifications: The Director of Public Relations must have a minimum of five years experience in public relations or equivalent experience. Excellent interpersonal, communication, and organization skills required. Proven experience working with the media, organizing special events, and computer knowledge necessary. Ability to work independently, take initiative, oversee staff, and work as part of a team required.

Competitive salary & benefits; flexible work environment. EOE.

Send letter and resume to:

RICADV, 422 Post Road, Warwick, RI 02888