PLEASE NOTE: This chart will continue to be updated throughout the Appropriations process. Updates at www.nnedv.org/funding.

* Rescissions: Final bills often include rescissions. The final bills included the following rescissions from OVW from unobligated or deobligated funds: FY 15 $16 million; FY 17 $10 million; FY 18 $15 million, FY 19 $10 million.

¥ ICJR was formerly named the Grants to Encourage Arrest Program (GTEAP). Since FY 12, Congress has included a $4 million set-aside in ICJR for a homicide reduction initiative.

‡ VAWA 2013 consolidated youth and prevention programs into two programs (CHOOSE and SMART), which have been further consolidated via appropriations for the past several years.

⌘ The Rape Survivors Child Custody Act boosts VAWA funding for states that allow for women to petition for the termination of parental rights based on clear & convincing evidence that a child was conceived through rape.

^ VOCA transfers to VAWA. In FY 16-FY 20 Congress transferred money from VOCA to VAWA (FY 16 = $379 million, FY 17 $326 million, FY 18 = $492 million, FY 19 $497.50, FY20 $435 million). The victim advocacy field objects to these transfers.

¶ VOCA: We request that annual release of VOCA funds are reflective of the deposits into the Crime Victims Fund. Tribal funding: We support establishing a VOCA Tribal funding stream at 10% of VOCA funds. Transfers and rescissions: We object to proposals and bills that transfer funds from Crime Victims Fund to other accounts.

 Funding maintains and increases capacity of the National Domestic Violence Hotline, funds a tribal domestic violence hotline and other hotline-related projects.

^o FVPSA, The National Domestic Violence Hotline, and DELTA are authorized through FVPSA. We support funding for the Alaska Tribal Resource Center on Domestic Violence, which would build capacity in tribes across the State to develop effective, local responses to domestic violence. FY 18, FY 19, and FY 20 provide $5-$7 million additional funding for tribes.

An additional $45 million in FVPSA and $2 million for the National Domestic Violence Hotline in supplemental funding were provided in the 2020 Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act.

Δ PHHSBG is authorized through the Public Health Services Act and includes a mandatory set-aside for providing services to rape victims and for rape prevention.

~ Set aside funding for domestic violence rapid rehousing projects, out of the Continuum of Care Program, administered by the SNAPS Office at HUD.

Survivors who identify as people of color urgently need culturally-relevant services that address the nexus of domestic and sexual violence and the COVID-19 pandemic. This new program would be administered by the FVPSA Office.
