15:36:40 From Geoffrey Stratton : non profit groups that report for survivors

15:36:42 From Angelica Addison : Important need for sensitivity, accountability, and reform within police departments

15:36:53 From Brooke Ely-Milen : Public awareness campaign
<https://www.standupcolorado.org/>

15:37:02 From Jill Grampovnik : mandated classes

15:37:06 From Deborah McCurdy : Protection orders and advocacy.

15:37:14 From M. Pacelli : DART includes the DA, HPD, HAWC (us) and SANE nurse team -- effort to get evidence on site if survivor wishes

15:37:23 From Debra Hoffmann : With police, a DV officer

15:37:25 From M. Pacelli : And quick access to our Shelter

15:38:19 From Tania Romero : Protection orders and BIPP program.

15:38:39 From Carrie Lippy : I'm late on the draw, but great question, Angela. In addition to survived and punished, I might also suggest policies aimed at reducing the role of law enforcement can help to lessen the impact of the prison systems broadly on survivors. E.g., reforms to things like mandatory arrest and mandatory reporting can decrease the extent to which survivors have to interface with law enforcement

15:38:52 From Isadora Coates : Restorative justice, mandated courses, understanding that this will continue to happen and sending abusers to serve time will often not help in the long run. We aren't look to put bandaids over broken bones. We need to push forward with a LONG TERM restorative and trauma informed plan.

- 15:39:06 From Angelica Addison : Education and Challenging of gender stereotypes and racial dynamics in IPV
- 15:39:19 From Denise Scotland : What are folks doing about all the negative unintended consequences for survivors and all folks (survivor and abuser) from underserved populations from criminalizing DV?
- 15:39:44 From Denise Scotland : Hire/Fire at will state
- 15:39:54 From Lisa Battaglia : Right to Work State
- 15:41:02 From Ericka Dixon : that's a great question Denise, I think that goes back to really focusing on the self determination of the survivor and presenting all options and all possible consequences of the options could be and planning around that. sometimes survivor centered work means working with police if that's what the survivor wants even if that goes against personal politics and vice versa, if the survivor does not want to work with the criminal legal system and finding othercreative ways to need needs
- 15:41:27 From reed (he/they, RVA) : tool vs weapon
- 15:42:06 From Ryan Seufer : They could publicize all of that information and put everything at risk for everyone
- 15:42:34 From Denise Scotland : I get the survivor-centered work approach...but sometimes when a state criminalizes DV, the options to survivors decrease.
- 15:43:18 From Carrie Lippy : Denise, great point! I highly recommend the book Decriminalizing DV by Leigh Goodmark
<https://www.ucpress.edu/book/9780520295575/decriminalizing-domestic-violence>
- 15:43:43 From Denise Scotland : Thanks!
- 15:43:46 From Gillian Galdy : its not only painful, but it is degrading
- 15:43:50 From Carrie - Circle VT : fear/intimidation
- 15:43:54 From Heather Bellew : to establish fear
- 15:44:02 From Debra Hoffmann : it makes them feel like a powerless child
- 15:44:05 From Lori Nelson : shame, especially if there's a lasting injury
- 15:44:12 From Shuan King : Blaming the victim that their actions caused a slapping reaction
- 15:44:17 From Bethany Coldren : Conditioning and fear - if it happens multiple times, it will happen again "if I do something wrong"
- 15:44:18 From Charlotte Burrell : embarrassment
- 15:44:18 From Isadora Coates : Establishing power and dominant over victim.
- 15:44:25 From Johanne Delly : To belittle them
- 15:44:29 From Angelica Addison : To forbid particular, close relationships
- 15:44:29 From Jill Grampovnik : fear conditioning
- 15:44:37 From Carrie Lippy : Denise, Googmark discusses the points you're making— there's growing discussion in the broader field about reexamining the historic role that the criminal legal system has played in the DV field.
- 15:44:41 From Sarah Meyerderks : shame, fear, and creating an environment where they will get hurt and they caused it
- 15:44:41 From Tina Vincent : the abuser would feel as though he/she put the partner in his/her place.
- 15:44:43 From Carrie - Circle VT : "it was only a slap.. I can do way worse"

15:45:18 From Sarah Meyerdierks : gain control back

15:45:19 From Lori Nelson : To end an argument

15:45:19 From Carrie - Circle VT : Self defense

15:45:23 From Lexa Dearlove : self defense

15:45:24 From Lori Nelson : to create time to get away

15:45:25 From Tina Vincent : show no fear!

15:45:25 From Ryan Seufer : show they aren't afraid

15:45:27 From Jessa Winas : Fawning.

15:45:27 From Heather Bellew : protect themselves

15:45:31 From Jazmine Booth : self defense

15:45:32 From Julie Goble : frustration reaction

15:45:34 From Jasiah Ruiz : try to earn control themselves

15:45:34 From Brooke Ely-Milen : Trying to equalize their voice

15:45:34 From Kaylee Moore : To show some form of power

15:45:37 From Denise Scotland : to stop a more violent incident

15:45:41 From Lexa Dearlove : appease because they want a reaction

15:45:42 From Jessica Feighan : take power back

15:45:42 From Heather Barnes : As an instinct/baseline reaction

15:45:42 From M. Pacelli : overt resistance

15:45:43 From Bethany Coldren : Try to gain control back

15:45:44 From Geoffrey Stratton : resist the control and conditioning

15:45:47 From Ryan Seufer : release anger of having enough

15:45:55 From Charlotte Burrell : To try to regain some power

15:45:57 From Brooke Ely-Milen : Take the focus if trying to shield a child or others

15:46:03 From Tammy Oliver : To take back their power

15:46:14 From Tiffany Perry : redirect violence (for example in defense of children)

15:46:25 From Esther Bradeen : to get through the tension phase quicker

15:47:36 From Ryan Seufer : when screening you have to look at the whole scenario before you even begin to consider who is who

15:47:42 From Ryan Seufer : not just who started it

15:47:49 From Ryan Seufer : or who did the action

15:48:01 From Ryan Seufer : ask the questions, who what when where why

15:48:10 From Angelica Addison : This was arguably a case during the media news on Tiger Woods and his ex-wife. She physically attacked him but wasn't arrested nor more, but if the roles were reversed, Tiger would be. Both gender and racial double standards.

15:50:01 From Carrie Lippy : Angelica, you're highlighting how doing a detailed assessment of all the folks we work with, not just LGBTQ people, is important to be able to understand the dynamics of power in a relationship

15:50:01 From Angelica Addison : Granted this was a complicated case, involving infidelity, but you can't ignore the double standards at the same time.

15:51:28 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : www.nwnetwork.org/events

15:51:32 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : Hi Everyone! Here's the webinar evaluation link that you can complete. <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/X8HZSR6>

15:51:33 From Lexa Dearlove : are the assessments free?

- 15:51:42 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : We have an archive of webinar recordings available there
- 15:51:47 From Lexa Dearlove : once we've trained ourselves on how to use them
- 15:51:51 From Lexa Dearlove : Thanks!
- 15:51:57 From Bethany Coldren : Are the assessments free, not just the webinars?
- 15:52:33 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : Bethany, do you mean our in person assessment trainings?
- 15:54:26 From Debra Hoffmann : here in Baldwin Co Alabama, it's ignored
- 15:54:26 From Johanna Durazzi : I am wondering the same thing. Are the assessments free pdfs/ downloadable for us to use?
- 15:55:22 From Geoffrey Stratton : staff turn over and result in a decrease of support, if a survivor is counting on a particular staff member for support
- 15:55:24 From Isadora Coates : YES Fatima, generally in the culturally specific realm of social work I find this occurs a lot.
- 15:55:51 From Ryan Seufer : I had that role of having to take over someone's role. It was for sure overwhelming.
- 15:56:21 From Angelica Addison : Identity politics could bring a struggle too.
- 15:56:29 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : Our assessment webinar series (3.5 parts total) offers a broad stroke overview of our assessment process, and folks who attend all 3 will receive a copy of our assessment tool at the end. The in-person offers a more targeted training, where we are able to troubleshoot issues specific to the organization around implementation, org buy-in at all levels, etc
- 15:57:09 From Geoffrey Stratton : Its difficult to establish that trust relationship after a staff member leaves - as that can create additional trust issues.
- 15:57:31 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : We only send out PDFs of slides to folks who attend the live webinar sessions, but they are available in the recordings as well!
- 15:57:32 From Angelica Addison : Ongoing education and training with cultural humility.
- 15:57:58 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : Hi Everyone! Please be sure to complete today's webinar evaluation: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/X8HZSR6> Thank you!
- 15:58:00 From Carrie Lippy : Johanna, great question. The assessments are free; however, we only provide them after providers/organizations receive our assessment training series. We have found over the years that this training is necessary for providers and organizations to be able to effectively utilize the tool.
- 15:58:31 From Carrie Lippy : demonstrateaccess.org
- 15:58:48 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : Thanks for expanding, Carrie!
- 16:00:22 From Denise Scotland : Can you give us a sense of what the cost is for you to train an organization? I am sure it varies, so I'm mostly looking for a broad number.
- 16:00:36 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : It's an awesome resource and there are some tip sheets you can download!
- 16:01:21 From Jordan Steiner : Where do we get info on ICAT?
- 16:01:22 From Angelica Addison : Do you have a mailing list we can keep connected to as well?
- 16:02:37 From Heather Barnes : I love tip sheets!!

16:04:02 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : Angelica, you can email me at marci@nwnetwork.org for training updates!

16:04:31 From Angelica Addison : Okay, Thanks.

16:05:30 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : Denise, there are a few factors we weigh around cost, but if an organization is paying our rate, we require at minimum 2 full days, 3 days strongly encouraged, to effectively train on assessment. Our rate is the OVW TTA max at 650/day, per diem & travel.

16:06:22 From Denise Scotland : Thanks Marci!

16:06:32 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : Of course :)

16:06:47 From Heather Barnes : I am not surprised that Trans survivors would not feel safe in a mainstream organization. with common ideas and attitudes on who is the abuser or victim based on gender, it is a lose lose situation for them.

16:07:07 From Heather Barnes : Also there are, in my opinion, one of the most at risk LGBTQ populations to experience violence in general..

16:08:48 From Heather Barnes : QUESTION: Will these slides be available outside of the Webinar afterwards? (Asking in regards to sharing at team meeting). Thanks!

16:08:53 From Carrie Lippy : Some of the best national stats on LGB IPV comes from the CDC's National Intimate Partner and Sexual Violence Survey:
https://www.cdc.gov/violenceprevention/pdf/nisvs_sofindings.pdf

16:09:06 From Carrie Lippy : That's where you'll see the high rate of violence reported by bisexual survivors

16:09:07 From McKenna Kline : yes also curious about the slides

16:10:34 From Fatima Arain : I believe that all the slides and the recording will be sent to everyone!

16:11:30 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : yes, we will send out a link to the Webinar recording. slides, and evaluation following today's webinar. We will send it out as soon as the recording is ready.

16:12:24 From Angelica Addison : How do you feel about therapy/counseling for abusers? That's a big challenge to how I was raised and what I was told growing up. Have you felt the same? Have you seen or heard outcomes that challenge the common beliefs on abusers not being able to change?

16:12:44 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : I've got it!

16:12:45 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : We will also send out the webinar recording and slides on the listservs to all FVPSA state administrators and state domestic violence coalitions that can share it with the field.

16:13:18 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : http://lgbtqipv.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/11/LGBTQ-Institute-SOGI-Data-Collection-Resource-Guide_final.pdf

16:13:36 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : The sexual orientation/gender identity collection resource guide!

16:15:06 From Lexa Dearlove : on your website, when i click on events and trainings, i can't see any webinars when i click that on the drop-down. i tried safari and chrome

16:15:24 From Fatima Arain : Angelica, we believe that abusers need accountability supports, and not all therapists or counselors are equipped to provide that kind of support! Our field has really struggled to create programs or supports that actually support accountability - i think its a culture-wide issue actually and something I hope that we can get more creative about!

16:15:33 From Denise Scotland : Can all these great links be shared when we get the recording and PPT? Sometimes folks have access to the chat, but if not it will need to be shared some other way...

16:15:52 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : Our webinar on data collection is coming up in June. Link below! Form and Function: Using Inclusive and Culturally Responsive Language When Gathering Data on Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity - <https://nwnetwork.adobeconnect.com/form-jun20/event/registration.html>

16:16:07 From Fatima Arain : Here is the link to our events page:
<https://www.nwnetwork.org/events>

16:16:08 From reed (he/they, RVA) : the zoom group chat can be shared out too. :)

16:16:48 From Denise Scotland : Good to know, thanks Reed!

16:19:31 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : Yes, we will send out the chat along with the webinar recording with everyone following today's webinar

16:20:04 From Zoe Nesin : Has the Assessment webinar changed significantly in the last several years? I've taken it, but wondering if I should do it again to get the most up to date learning

16:20:05 From Carrie Lippy : <https://www.nwnetwork.org/events>

16:20:07 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : Please be sure to complete the webinar evaluation:
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/X8HZSR6>

16:20:36 From Denise Scotland : Perfect, thanks Ellen. And will do re: eval!

16:23:18 From Fatima Arain : FYI, all of our offerings are free of charge, unless they are specific trainings just for your organization!

16:23:52 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff to Meinkeng Fonge (Privately) : Meinkeng --- did you want to close it out at the very end? Specifically, the eval, follow-up coaching calls for state admins and coalitions, etc.

16:24:47 From Fatima Arain : fatima@nwnetwork.org

16:25:19 From Ericka Dixon : edixon@avp.org :) feel free to reach out about NCAVP

16:27:10 From Fatima Arain : The whole institute is just the four of us! haha so please reach out with your questions and also keep in mind that it might take us a bit before we can fully respond to you! We are excited to hear from you!

16:27:11 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : We will send out info about the Coaching Call in the follow-up email.

16:27:59 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : if you have any questions for NNEDV, you can contact us at capacity_ta@nnedv.org

16:28:09 From Angelica Addison : Can you include the slides in email too?

16:28:24 From Marci Taitt (she/her, LGBTQ Institute) : Yes, please reach out!
marci@nwnetwork.org

16:28:28 From Valetta Stewart : love that you engage us in the process. !!

16:28:33 From ALice Caron : Will you be emailing everyone your emails addresses as well?

16:28:38 From Ellen Yin-Wycoff : Yes, we will send out the PowerPoint to you

16:28:48 From Valetta Stewart : thanks

16:28:52 From Angelica Addison : Awesome!

16:28:57 From Helene Harris : Thank you!

16:28:58 From Tonia Moultry : the coaching call will focus on state planning and monitoring for state administrators and state coalitions

16:29:00 From Maylen Martinez : That's great.. thank you

16:29:01 From Tonia Moultry : Thank you

16:29:03 From Rocio Barajas : Thanks

16:29:04 From Rosa Torres : thank you so much great information!!!

16:29:05 From Joanna Fosque : Thank you!!
