Full-Time Position Available:

Vice President of External Affairs at the National Network to End Domestic Violence

The National Network to End Domestic Violence (NNEDV) is a social change organization dedicated to creating a social, political, and economic environment in which domestic violence no longer exists. NNEDV advocates for law, policies, and funding to address domestic violence, and provides training, technical assistance, education, and support to state and territorial domestic violence coalitions.

NNEDV is deeply committed to creating and sustaining an organizational culture that values diversity, inclusion and equity and envisions an organization that reflects the rich cultural diversity of the community. In pursuit of this vision, we are committed to educating, developing, and supporting an organization that embodies diversity in its many forms.

NNEDV seeks an experienced Vice President of External Affairs to join our team. The Vice President of External Affairs oversees our Development and Communications Team and Public Policy Team. The position is responsible to have and build relationships with allied women’s rights and social justice organizations, governmental partners, policymakers, private foundations, corporate partners, and other stakeholders to increase their understanding of and support of our work to end domestic violence. The VP of External Affairs will help lead the vision and direction for creating and leveraging partnerships (e.g., financial, private and public institutions, community support, etc.) to support and deliver on our mission of ending domestic violence, and will develop and expand our public policy reach by developing strategic relationships with legislative and executive branch leaders. The VP will help lead this work in conjunction with the President and CEO and work closely with all NNEDV teams to define an effective strategy to advance public awareness and change the attitudes that condone or ignore gender-based violence.

This position reports to the NNEDV’s President and CEO, serving as an integral, trusted, and supportive member of the NNEDV executive leadership team.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- Support NNEDV President and CEO as a partner in executive decisions and organizational management.
- Partner with and elevate NNEDV’s membership of 56 state and coalition territories.
Advocate for NNEDV’s commitment to racial equity and inclusion on all levels, internally and externally, as part of its core mission. Ensure all work is survivor-centered and rooted in racial justice.

Responsible for the organization’s overall federal policy initiatives in close collaboration with the Policy team and Public Policy Committee, maintaining and building relationships within Congress and the Administration, as well as in the political and public policy community. Advise and work on specific issues including the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA), the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (FVPSA), appropriations, economic justice, housing legislation, and the implementation of other federal statutes.

As needed, serve as a spokesperson with the press, represent NNEDV in other appropriate public venues, and oversee the development of a proactive media strategy in close collaboration with the Development and Communications team.

Maintain and increase existing federal and corporate funding, grow foundation and individual donor giving support, and implement other new funding strategies and initiatives.

Build and strengthen relationships within and beyond the domestic violence and sexual assault fields.

Identify emerging issues, opportunities, and crises and develop responses for both NNEDV and membership.

Work closely with HR and fiscal/grant management staff to achieve the organization’s goals.
