Full-Time, Non-Exempt Position Available:
CTA Coordinator at the National Network to End Domestic Violence

The National Network to End Domestic Violence (NNEDV) is a social change organization dedicated to creating a social, political, and economic environment in which domestic violence no longer exists. NNEDV advocates for law, policies, and funding to address domestic violence, and provides training, technical assistance, education, and support to state/territory domestic violence coalitions, as well as local domestic violence, sexual violence, and stalking programs, transitional housing programs, and the general public.

NNEDV is deeply committed to creating and sustaining an organizational culture that values diversity, inclusion and equity and envisions an organization that reflects the rich cultural diversity of the community. In pursuit of this vision, we are committed to educating, developing, and supporting an organization that embodies diversity in its many forms.

NNEDV seeks a Coordinator to work with the Coalition/Capacity technical assistance (CTA) team. This is a great opportunity for a committed team player to work in a dynamic, fast-paced environment.

Working with the Coalition/Capacity technical assistance (CTA) team, the Coordinator will help implement NNEDV's programmatic initiatives and work to build the capacity of the state and territorial domestic violence coalitions, local and tribal programs, and state administrators. This position includes significant administrative duties, such as organizing meetings and events, preparing reports. As a team member, the Coordinator will also participate in many other aspects of the programmatic work. This is an essential position on the team with significant responsibility in the Washington, DC office and within the national setting. The ideal candidate is highly dedicated and resourceful, can work well autonomously and collaboratively, and is committed to contributing to positive social change.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Planning and coordinating NNEDV meetings, conferences, events, and trainings, including hotel procurement, speaker, and participant travel arrangements, expense reimbursements, and conference request and report forms
- Securing and setting up translation services, closed captioning, and meeting registration
- Helping to update sections of NNEDV's website, maintaining listservs and directories
- Handling administrative tasks, including meeting notes, expense reports, and other internal documentation
- Managing consultants and contracts, handling logistical supports for all meetings
- Tracking technical assistance requests and responses and grant expenditures and assisting with grant reporting

- Creating materials; drafting alerts, fact sheets, and programmatic updates for state and territorial coalitions and local domestic violence programs
- Assisting NNEDV staff in technical assistance projects, including support of state and territorial coalitions and local and tribal domestic violence programs
- Supporting and build the capacity of state and territorial domestic violence coalitions and FVPSA grantees by researching and responding to requests for information and assistance
- Working as a collegial member of the NNEDV team, collaborating with other NNEDV programs and staff
- Advancing NNEDV's commitment to racial equity and inclusion on all levels, internally and externally as part of its core mission, ensuring that work is coordinated, effective, survivor-centered, and rooted in racial justice
