

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT

NEW MEXICO SUMMARY

On September 7, 2022, 24 out of 33 (73%) identified domestic violence programs in New Mexico participated in a national count of domestic violence services conducted by the National Network to End Domestic Violence (NNEDV). The following figures represent the information shared by the participating programs about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

593 Victims Served

409 adult and child victims of domestic violence found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local domestic violence programs.

184 adult and child victims received non-residential supportive services related to legal needs, housing advocacy, transportation, mental health, public benefits, and more.

125 Hotline Contacts Received

Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims in danger, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, and email. Hotline staff received 125 contacts, averaging more than 5 contacts per hour.

35 People Educated

On the survey day, local domestic violence programs provided 7 public training sessions (educational sessions provided to the public) to 35 people, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention.

16 Unmet Requests for Services

Victims made 16 requests for services that programs could not provide because they did not have the resources. Approximately 63% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, and other housing.

✘ “It has not been easy for programs to address the barriers that survivors have faced due to abuse and the effects of the pandemic, including scarce real estate, a financial crisis, and high demands for basic needs. However, the resilience that has brought many programs together to support each other during these trying times has been amazing to see, despite the many challenges we are facing.”
