

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT

NORTH CAROLINA SUMMARY

On September 6, 2023, 67 out of 85 (79%) identified domestic violence programs in North Carolina participated in a national count of domestic violence services conducted by the National Network to End Domestic Violence (NNEDV). The following figures were shared by participating programs about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

1,074 Victims Served

659 adult and child victims of domestic violence found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

415 adult and child victims received non-residential supportive services related to transportation, housing advocacy, legal support, therapy, and more.

575 Hotline Contacts Received

Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims in danger, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more. Programs' hotlines received 575 contacts, averaging nearly 24 contacts per hour.

142 People Educated

Programs provided 10 educational sessions and trainings to 142 members of the public, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention.

176 Unmet Requests for Services

Victims made 176 requests for services that programs could not provide because they lacked sufficient resources. Approximately 57% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, transitional housing, and other housing.

Table 1: Services Provided on 9/6/23	% of Programs Providing Services

✘ "One client was receiving court advocacy and therapy through our agency. Her harm-doer had shown very concerning signs of potential homicide, and she had been worried that a judge would not grant her a protective order. It was finally granted, and she stated that she wasn't sure if she could have gone through the process without all of the support she received from us." - North Carolina advocate
