On September 6, 2023, 53 out of 65 (82%) identified domestic violence programs in Washington participated in a national count of domestic violence services conducted by the National Network to End Domestic Violence (NNEDV). The following figures were shared by participating programs about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

2,318 Victims Served

1,348 adult and child victims of domestic violence found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

970 adult and child victims received non-residential supportive services related to transportation, housing advocacy, legal support, therapy, and more.

562 Hotline Contacts Received

Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims in danger, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more. Programs’ hotlines received 562 contacts, averaging more than 23 contacts per hour.

83 People Educated

Programs provided 6 educational sessions and trainings to 83 members of the public, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention.

470 Unmet Requests for Services

Victims made 470 requests for services that programs could not provide because they lacked sufficient resources. Approximately 52% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, transitional housing, and other housing.

"One survivor connected with our flexible funding housing advocate, who provided her with rental assistance and helped her avoid an eviction. She told us: ‘Without you, I would have been on the streets with my kids. I would have had to go back to my abuser or be homeless.’" - Washington advocate
