

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT COLORADO SUMMARY

On September 10, 2025, 30 out of 46 (65%) identified domestic violence programs in Colorado participated in NEDV’s Domestic Violence Counts Survey: a one-day, unduplicated count of adults and children seeking domestic violence services. Participating programs shared the following figures about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

744 Victims Served

352 adults and children found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

392 adults and children received non-residential supportive services like transportation, housing support, legal support, therapy, and more.

306 Hotline Contacts Received

Programs’ hotlines received 306 contacts, averaging nearly 13 contacts per hour. Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more.

106 People Educated

Programs provided 7 educational sessions and trainings to 106 members of the public, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention. Community education is essential to raising awareness and promoting resources.

183 Unmet Requests for Services

Programs were unable to meet 183 requests for help because they lacked sufficient resources, funding, and/or staffing. Approximately 66% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, transitional housing, and other housing.

✘ “Federal funding is essential for shelters such as ours to continue providing critical, lifesaving services for victims of domestic violence and their children. Funding cuts would mean a reduction in programs or closing some programs altogether. Any reduction in funding could mean a loss of life.” - Colorado advocate
