

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT CONNECTICUT SUMMARY

On September 10, 2025, 14 out of 15 (93%) identified domestic violence programs in Connecticut participated in NNEDV’s Domestic Violence Counts Survey: a one-day, unduplicated count of adults and children seeking domestic violence services. Participating programs shared the following figures about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

1,117 Victims Served

624 adults and children found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

493 adults and children received non-residential supportive services like transportation, housing support, legal support, therapy, and more.

524 Hotline Contacts Received

Programs’ hotlines received 524 contacts, averaging nearly 22 contacts per hour. Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more.

277 People Educated

Programs provided 14 educational sessions and trainings to 277 members of the public, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention. Community education is essential to raising awareness and promoting resources.

26 Unmet Requests for Services

Programs were unable to meet 26 requests for help because they lacked sufficient resources, funding, and/or staffing. Approximately 96% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, transitional housing, and other housing.

Table 1: Services Provided on 9/10/25	% of Programs Providing Services

Therapy Counseling for Children or Youth	50%

✘ “One client and their child moved from our emergency safehouse into transitional housing. This was a significant step. They had never lived without support from their family or abuser. The apartment was fully furnished, and they were able to request additional items through our donation center. They were happy and grateful, saying that it was a life-changing event for them and their family.” - Connecticut advocate
