

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT GEORGIA SUMMARY

On September 10, 2025, 48 out of 57 (84%) identified domestic violence programs in Georgia participated in NNEDV’s Domestic Violence Counts Survey: a one-day, unduplicated count of adults and children seeking domestic violence services. Participating programs shared the following figures about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

2,259 Victims Served

1,292 adults and children found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

967 adults and children received non-residential supportive services like transportation, housing support, legal support, therapy, and more.

674 Hotline Contacts Received

Programs’ hotlines received 674 contacts, averaging more than 28 contacts per hour. Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more.

1,535 People Educated

Programs provided 19 educational sessions and trainings to 1,535 members of the public, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention. Community education is essential to raising awareness and promoting resources.

284 Unmet Requests for Services

Programs were unable to meet 284 requests for help because they lacked sufficient resources, funding, and/or staffing. Approximately 64% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, transitional housing, and other housing.

✦ “After returning several times, one survivor decided to leave her abuser for good. Our advocates helped her enroll in financial literacy workshops and counseling services. What she needs most is transitional housing, but the waiting lists are long and the cost is overwhelming. Her journey shows that leaving is not a single moment, but a process that requires time and wrap-around resources to sustain independence and resolve.” - Georgia advocate
