

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT NEW YORK SUMMARY

On September 10, 2025, 95 out of 109 (87%) identified domestic violence programs in New York participated in NNEDV’s Domestic Violence Counts Survey: a one-day, unduplicated count of adults and children seeking domestic violence services. Participating programs shared the following figures about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

8,750 Victims Served

6,636 adults and children found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

2,114 adults and children received non-residential supportive services like transportation, housing support, legal support, therapy, and more.

1,451 Hotline Contacts Received

Programs’ hotlines received 1,451 contacts, averaging nearly 61 contacts per hour. Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more.

1,228 People Educated

Programs provided 35 educational sessions and trainings to 1,228 members of the public, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention. Community education is essential to raising awareness and promoting resources.

787 Unmet Requests for Services

Programs were unable to meet 787 requests for help because they lacked sufficient resources, funding, and/or staffing. Approximately 57% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, transitional housing, and other housing.

Table 1: Services Provided on 9/10/25	% of Programs Providing Services
Emergency Shelter	62%
Therapy/Counseling for Adults	59%
Court Accompaniment or Legal Support	53%
Support Related to Housing/Landlord	52%
Support Related to Mental Health	52%
Support Related to Public Benefits/TANF/Welfare	48%
Transitional or Other Housing (run by DV program)	43%
Transportation	43%
Children’s Support	35%

❖ “Sustained and increased funding is critical to our ability to provide comprehensive, trauma-informed services to victims of violence. Every day, survivors reach out in crisis, and our capacity to respond depends directly on the resources available. Without adequate funding, lifesaving services remain limited or inaccessible. Continued investment ensures that survivors are not turned away and that communities can work toward real safety, healing, and justice.”
