

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT

NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS SUMMARY

On September 10, 2025, 1 out of 1 (100%) identified domestic violence programs in the Northern Mariana Islands participated in NEDV's Domestic Violence Counts Survey: a one-day, unduplicated count of adults and children seeking domestic violence services. Participating programs shared the following figures about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

66 Victims Served

66 adults and children found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

While no victims received non-residential supportive services on the survey day, these essential services still require funding to keep them available all year long.

1 Hotline Contact Received

Programs' hotlines received 1 contact. Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more.

0 People Educated

While programs did not provide educational sessions during this period, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention are important throughout the year.

0 Unmet Requests for Services

While programs did not report any unmet requests during this period, there is still a tremendous need for increased funding to ensure programs can provide comprehensive services to all survivors seeking help while working toward preventing violence in their communities.

✘ "Our commonwealth is experiencing a severe economic downturn. Our tourism industry hasn't recovered following COVID-19. Pass-through funds to our only shelter are on hold, which puts our shelter in jeopardy. Local officials have found funds to tide us over, but they are insufficient. Programs in the U.S. territories face unique challenges on a daily basis. We often feel forgotten." - Northern Mariana Islands advocate
