

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT OREGON SUMMARY

On September 10, 2025, 40 out of 53 (75%) identified domestic violence programs in Oregon participated in NEDV's Domestic Violence Counts Survey: a one-day, unduplicated count of adults and children seeking domestic violence services. Participating programs shared the following figures about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

2,720 Victims Served

2,081 adults and children found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

639 adults and children received non-residential supportive services like transportation, housing support, legal support, therapy, and more.

602 Hotline Contacts Received

Programs' hotlines received 602 contacts, averaging more than 25 contacts per hour. Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more.

91 People Educated

Programs provided 7 educational sessions and trainings to 91 members of the public, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention. Community education is essential to raising awareness and promoting resources.

728 Unmet Requests for Services

Programs were unable to meet 728 requests for help because they lacked sufficient resources, funding, and/or staffing. Approximately 87% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, transitional housing, and other housing.

✘ "We continue to see limited funding, overwhelming demand, and long waits for services. It is life-changing when survivors can access resources — the difference between remaining trapped and beginning to heal. Sustained investments in domestic violence programs would allow us to meet survivors' needs more fully, strengthen prevention, and ensure every survivor has the safety, dignity, and justice they deserve." - Oregon advocate
