

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COUNTS REPORT U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS SUMMARY

On September 10, 2025, 2 out of 2 (100%) identified domestic violence programs in the U.S. Virgin Islands participated in NNEDV’s Domestic Violence Counts Survey: a one-day, unduplicated count of adults and children seeking domestic violence services. Participating programs shared the following figures about the services they provided during the 24-hour survey period.

38 Victims Served

19 adults and children found refuge in emergency shelters, transitional housing, hotels, motels, or other housing provided by local programs.

19 adults and children received non-residential supportive services like transportation, housing support, legal support, therapy, and more.

41 Hotline Contacts Received

Programs’ hotlines received 41 contacts, averaging nearly 2 contacts per hour. Domestic violence hotlines are lifelines for victims, providing support, information, safety planning, and resources via phone, chat, text, email, and more.

42 People Educated

Programs provided 3 educational sessions and trainings to 42 members of the public, addressing topics like domestic violence prevention and early intervention. Community education is essential to raising awareness and promoting resources.

2 Unmet Requests for Services

Programs were unable to meet 2 requests for help because they lacked sufficient resources, funding, and/or staffing. 100% of these unmet requests were for emergency shelter, hotels, motels, transitional housing, and other housing.

✘ “A woman and her child urgently sought to leave the island, fleeing abuse and fearing for their lives. We secured a flight for the following day and placed them in a safe location overnight. With compassion and swift coordination, we ensured their safe departure. Their story reflects the power of responsive support and the importance of immediate resources for survivors in crisis.” - U.S. Virgin Islands advocate
